Work jurisdictions which have traditionally and historically been assigned to the Union, shall continue to be so assigned, and the Employer will not intentionally take any action directed at eroding the continued assignment of traditional and historical work jurisdictions to the Union by allowing the work to be performed by State employees represented by other unions. All newly created positions shall be discussed between the Union's claiming jurisdiction. The Union may contact the Agency Labor Relations Office or the Department of Central Management Services. Appeals regarding work jurisdiction matters may be sent to Central Management Services, Division of Labor Relations and the operating agency. Upon request of the Union the parties shall meet within ten (10) work days to make every possible attempt to resolve the matter.

If the issue remains unresolved, this meeting shall be considered as the step 4(a) section of the contractual grievance procedure.

HOURLY WAGE RATES: Copies of signed Agreements between contractors or other employers and the respective Union shall be certified to the Illinois State Department of Labor by the International Representative of the respective Union and shall be considered adequate proof of the prevailing rate of wages to be paid, minus the per hour costs of fringe benefits so designated by Agreement, if any, in keeping with past practice. Grievances may be processed by the Union on behalf of itself, any employee or group of employees, or by the aggrieved employee. An employee is entitled to Union representation at each step of the grievance procedure.

Before a formal grievance is filed, the aggrieved employee should attempt to resolve the grievance by discussing it with their immediate supervisor

Section 2. Grievance Steps:

STEP 1: Immediate Supervisor: The employee and/or Union shall present a written grievance with the employee's supervisor who is outside the bargaining unit.

The written grievance shall be on an agreed upon form provided by the facility's Personnel Office and shall contain a statement of the complaint, the date of the alleged violation and the relief sought. The form shall be signed and dated by the grievant.

All written grievances must be presented not later than ten (10) working days from the date the grievant become aware of the occurrence giving rise to the complaint. Within ten (10) working days of its receipt, the Intermediate Administrator shall discuss the grievance with the union, and shall render a written answer within five (5) working days thereafter, to the grievant and the Union.

STEP 3: Agency Head: If the grievance is still unresolved, it shall be presented by the Union or the grievant, to the Agency Head, in writing, within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Step 2 response or date it was due, whichever is earliest. Within ten (10) working days after such presentation, the parties shall meet and attempt to solve the grievance unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The Agency Head shall issue a written response within ten

(10) working days following the meeting, or within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the grievance should no meeting be held, to the grievant and the Union. All grievances concerning work jurisdictions, termination and layoff may be grieved by the Union at Step 3.

STEP 4:

A) Union/Employer Meeting: If the matter remains unresolved at Step 3, only the Union, by written notice to the Employer, within ten (10) working days after the Step 3 answer, or date it was due, may appeal the grievance to Step 4. If the parties are unable to agree on an arbitrator within ten (10) working days after the meeting in Step 4(a), the parties shall request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a list of seven (7) arbitrators living within Illinois or close proximity to Illinois. Said arbitrators shall be members of the National Academy of Arbitrators. The parties shall alternately strike the names of three arbitrators, taking turns as to the first strike. A coin toss shall determine which party shall strike the first name. The person whose name remains shall be the arbitrator provided that either party, before striking any names, shall have the right to reject one (1) panel of arbitrators. The arbitrator shall be notified of their selection by a joint letter from the Employer and Union, requesting that they set a time and place for the hearing, subject to the availability of the Employer and Union representatives and shall be notified of the issue where mutually agreed by the parties.

Section 3. Time Limits:

A) Grievances may be withdrawn at any step of the Grievance Procedure without prejudice. Grievances not appealed within the designated time limits will be treated as withdrawn grievances.

B) The time limits at any step or for any hearing may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties involved at that particular step.

C) The Employer's failure to respond within the time limits shall not find in favor of the grievant but shall automatically advance the grievance to the next steps, except STEP 4(b) Arbitration.

VACANCIES: The Director of Central Management Services, or their designate, will meet with the Union as needed or upon request to discuss the specifications for the classifications in order to determine the appropriate job requirements and preferred qualifications. However, the Parties agree that the determination of specifications for the classifications and the appropriate job requirements is a wholly within the Employer's discretion as determined by the Department of Central Management Services. When the Employer decides to fill a position within the bargaining unit, the Employer, ten (10) days prior to the posting period, will notify the Union via email to give the Union an opportunity to notify reliable and competent candidates of the position being posted. The email shall be sent to the Business Agent of record submitted annually to external CMS Labor Relations. The Union will notify candidates of the ability to apply on the Employer's website for the posted position. The Union shall provide notice to the Agency's Labor Relations Department or the individual in charge of labor relations to make any candidate recommendations. Those individuals receiving a recommendation shall receive an interview, if applicable. However, the recommendation shall not result in any preference for the position.

Permanent vacancies shall be posted for bid on the Employer's website and other appropriate bulletin boards, at those work locations where employees do not have daily access to the electronic posting, for a period of ten (10) working days. Once a vacancy is posted and employees have applied for the position on the Employer's website, through the internal career portal, the vacancy will not be posted again for a period of thirty (30) calendar days unless all of the original bidders decline the position. The posting procedure may be modified if mutually agreed by the parties on an agency basis. Any bargaining unit employee may apply for a position; however, they must be deemed qualified and eligible in order to be considered for selection. An employee on leave of absence is not considered eligible unless, upon acceptance of the position, the employee is able to commence performing the duties within ten (10) working days of being offered the position.

The filling of all vacancies in bargaining unit positions, except for in cases of recall, shall only be after completion of the application review and interview process, where applicable.
